Salty Toad Extension of Premise for F.N.L.

Description of Extension: (See Map)

We are asking permission to host Friday Night live on the property directly outside of Salty Toad. There will be a band tent partially in the alley leaving 12ft. of clearance for any emergency vehicles to access Friedman Drive. We will have temporary fencing around the property owned by The Salty Toad with one entrance/exit where uniformed securities will I.D. patrons. Security will also be responsible for maintaining that no open intoxicants leave the property as well as clean-up after the live music has finished. Our fencing will have signage advertising the event as well as the food specials we have for this event. There will be 3 trash receptacles on the property for garbage & recycling. There will also be chairs provided by Thomas Press next to the band tent for patrons without open intoxicants to utilize. These chairs will also not be blocking the 12 ft. of clearance needed for emergency vehicles.

We understand each year that this event that this is a privilege and our goal is to maintain that we run our property in compliance with Waukesha's City Ordinances.
